

The St. Charles Home Show, presented by James Hardie, is the Place for the Latest Home Products and Services, Plus Expert Home Improvement Advice

St. Louis (March 2, 2026)—The 21st Annual Builders St. Charles Home Show, presented by James Hardie, is April 10-12 at St. Charles Convention Center, with free admission and parking. Local companies bring countless experts to this event who offer valuable home improvement knowledge and advice. People can see, learn about and buy the latest home products and services in one convenient location. The show is produced by the Home Builders Association of St. Louis and Eastern Missouri.

St. Louisans can find what they need for their homes, inside and out, including kitchen and bath designs and fixtures, window treatments, decks, fencing, windows, siding, doors, landscaping, pools, spas, saunas and so much more. Show visitors can save time by comparing products side-by-side in one location and save money with valuable show specials and discounts. Visiting the Show is also a great opportunity to have a fun family day out.

People want their homes to be their happy place, with spaces that fulfill a wide variety of needs. From design to functionality, many homeowners have areas of their homes that they would like to update. The Home Show is a great resource to help people create homes that fit the needs of today's families for their best home life. Show visitors are encouraged to bring photos of their homes as well as their wish list to create their ideal spaces. No question is too small and with hundreds of home pros in attendance, the answers are easy to find! Attendees can save time by visiting a variety of companies in one location and get started on their home improvement journey!

Show visitors can get expert gardening advice from Bevin Cohen at the Better Living Stage. Bevin Cohen (Ben) is an award-winning author, herbalist, owner of Small House Farm and host of the popular Seeds & Weeds podcast. He lives and works with his wife and two sons on their family homestead in Michigan. He offers workshops and lectures across the country on the benefits of living closer to the land through seeds, herbs, and locally grown food. He's the author or editor of more than ten books, including Saving Our Seeds and The Artisan Herbalist.

Bevin will present Grow an Herb Garden. Whether your interest is in culinary or medicinal herbs, Bevin will guide you through planning, planting and caring for your herbs to ensure a bountiful harvest. He will cover topics like starting herbs from seed, propagation and container gardening, plus harvesting and storage techniques. He will also present Grow Your Best Tomatoes and share how to maximize harvests with the least amount of work! He'll cover soil health, planting methods, mulching, pruning, trellising, and share the secrets he's learned over a lifetime of gardening. Get ready to grow the best tomatoes you've ever tasted!

The 19th Annual St. Charles Sausage Festival, Wine Tasting & More is a favorite destination for attendees. Visit this area for free tastings and products for purchase from a variety of sausage producers, Missouri wineries and more. Show visitors can discover delicious new items and stock up on their favorites – also great for unique gifts!

Shop the Spa & Swim Spa Blowout Sale, sponsored by Spas and More! for a great deal on a new spa or swim spa. Visitors can shop a 3,200 square foot tent, accessible from just outside the main Show entrance in the south parking lot, for a variety of spas. This spectacular sale offers show visitors the opportunity to save 30-50% off regular retail prices, with many models of spas and swim spas to choose from!

Outdoor living spaces are some of the most popular areas for home improvements. A variety of exhibitors, including pool and spa companies, landscape design and maintenance pros, and others offering decks and patios, outdoor kitchens, awnings and umbrellas, storage sheds and more can help people create amazing outdoor spaces.

The St. Charles Home Show is always a family-friendly destination, so bring the kids. They can have fun coloring and making creative crafts in the free Kids Craft Area. Plus, visitors can enjoy entertaining dog shows featuring obedience, agility, tricks and therapy, by Sit Means Sit STL.

The Home Show is hosting a Food Drive. Visitors can donate food items to the St. Louis Area Foodbank and are encouraged to bring non-perishable food in non-breakable containers. Suggested items include: peanut butter, tuna, canned meats and beans; canned fruits and vegetables, fruit juice, jellies, jams and dried fruit; cereal, oatmeal, rice and crackers; pasta and sauce, boxed meals, soups and stews; and baby products like powdered formula, baby food, diapers and wipes.

For area homeowners looking to do some home improvements, visiting the Show is the first step. Finding the products and services they need and the companies who can help will go a long way toward getting that project done. One lucky show visitor can get a start on their next home project when they win $500 Cash, courtesy of the Home Builders Association! Register at the show.

Show hours are 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Friday, April 10 and Saturday, April 11 and 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 12. Admission and parking are free. For more information, visit www.STLHomeShow.com.
